No Trace Of Patrice

ELISABETHVILLE, The Congo (AP) — A wide ranging air and ground search by dusk Friday had turned up no trace of Patrice Lumumba, the mysteriously missing ex-premier of the Congo. His Katanga Province jailers reported 24 hours previously he had escaped but their version was met with skepticism.

JFK Shoots For 59 More Judgeships

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Kennedy administration moved Friday to try to cash in on a big patronage wager which the Democratic leaders in Congress made last year.

President Kennedy and his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, submitted to Congress a bill calling for creation of 59 more federal judgeships.

The Kennedys said this many more judges are needed to relieve a judicial log jam which has been piling up since 1954.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower tried to get more judges, but a Democratic-controlled Congress was unwilling to create a bloc of judicial posts that Eisenhower could fill with Republicans.

Finally, as complaints of overcrowded court dockets mounted, Eisenhower offered to divide the new appointments evenly between Republicans and Democrats. Reacting to this, the House Judiciary Committee last June produced a bill to authorize 35 new judgeships, but the Democratic leadership had other ideas.

All-or-Nothing
Party strategists decided on an all-or-nothing gamble and let the bill die. When the vote for president was counted last November they figured they had won.

Kennedy and the Democrats are now entitled to nominate all the new judges — if Congress passes legislation authorizing them.

The Justice Department released a compilation of federal judicial appointments made by Eisenhower during his eight years in office. This showed 178 Republicans and 11 Democrats. Federal judges make a minimum of $22,500 a year and get full-pay retirement benefits.

Marilyn Discharged

NEW YORK (AP) — Actress Marilyn Monroe was discharged Friday from a New York psychiatric hospital after a four-day stay.

A spokesman for New York Hospital, who announced her departure, was unable to give her immediate destination.

The glamorous film star was admitted to the hospital's Payne Whitney Psychiatric Clinic Tuesday "for a period of rest and recuperation following a very arduous year in which she completed two films in rapid succession and in which she has had to face marital problems."

Those were the words of Miss Monroe's spokesman in the course of announcing previously that her stay in the hospital was not expected to be prolonged.

The 34-year-old actress was known to be upset over her recent divorce from playwright Arthur Miller and the recent death of actor Clark Gable, her costar in her latest picture, "The Misfits."

Two Executives Surrender

'Price Riggers' Go To Jail

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two Westinghouse Electric Corp. executives surrendered to the U.S. marshal Friday and obtained permission of a federal judge to begin a 30-day jail sentence immediately. Both were ordered imprisoned for antitrust law violations in the multi-million-dollar electrical conspiracy to fix prices and rig bids.

John H. Chiles, Jr., 57, Sharon, Pa., vice president in charge of the power transformer plant, and Charles I. Mauntel, 60, Drexel Hill, Pa., sales manager of the steam turbine division, walked into the federal building with their attorney.

escape story may be a deception used by the Katanga government — arch foe of the leftist-leaning unpredictable Congolese leader.

(The official Yugoslav Communist newspaper Borba of Belgrade said Friday in a Leopoldville dispatch that Lumumba had safely reached Sukava, capital of Kivu Province. Bukava is some 350 miles northeast of where Lumumba was being held.)

(Ten pro-Lumumba nations in the United Nations in New York — all skeptical — asked Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld Friday to investigate the Katanga reports that Lumumba escaped. U.S. Chief Delegate Adlai Stevenson said the United States would deeply deplore Lumumba's assassination if that turned out to be his fate.)

Katanga officials said security troops, helicopters and planes scoured the isolated area where Lumumba was held.

They reported spotting a black Ford sedan parked on a road about 25 miles north of the Portuguese Angola-Katanga border town of Kasaji.

The car was being checked to determine whether it was the car in which Lumumba and two imprisoned aides reportedly fled after overpowered guards. Kasaji is about 250 miles west of Elisabethville, the Katanga capital.

If the car is the one used in Lumumba's reported jailbreak, it could mean Lumumba is heading toward the Bukama area controlled by Lumumbists.

A Western diplomat with excellent contacts said his best sources contend Lumumba and two companions were dead before the announcement of escape.

Many believe Lumumba was either shot or died from beatings. "It could be an old wartime story of 'shot while trying to escape'" said one diplomat.

Lumumba, the Congo's first premier, was deposed in September and arrested in November.

U.N. officials and sources close to the Congo government in Leopoldville said they believe Lumumba is dead. The escape report produced none of the panic in the capital usually associated with Lumumba escape stories.

One member of the U.N. Conciliation Commission, Alex Quaison-Sackey of Ghana, told newsmen: "I think this is a cover-up story and that he has probably been shot. If Lumumba is dead there will be no peace in the Congo for 20 years." Ghana has supported Lumumba in the United Nations.

Lumumba's death would almost certainly produce a violent reaction among his followers. Western officials fear pro-Lumumba rulers in the northeast would touch off a new wave of violence against the area's white population.

News of the supposed escape followed by a day reorganization of the central government in Leopoldville. Politicians were brought back to power by President Joseph Kasavubu to head off a growing drive at the United Nations to release Lumumba and allow him to participate in Congolese politics as a force with a large following that could not be bottled up.

Williams Stated To Tour Africa

WASHINGTON (AP) — Asst. Secretary of State G. Mennen Williams will begin a tour of Africa Wednesday. He'll visit at least 12 African nations in a month.

The itinerary, announced by the State Department Friday, had one notable omission. It did not include Guinea. That country, which receives much Communist aid, now is entertaining Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev.

Press officer Lincoln White said, however, Williams plans to visit Africa again later this year.

NEW PREMIER CONGRATULATED — Joseph Ileo, center, newly-named Premier of the Congo, is congratulated by tribal chiefs after a conference in Leopoldville. Ileo, president of the suspended senate, was appointed by President Joseph Kasavubu.

On State And Local Level

CD Agencies Getting Ready To Meet Possible Flooding

HARRISBURG (AP)—State and local agencies are marshalling their equipment and briefing personnel on how to cope with possible floods stemming from the accumulation of snow and ice-clogged rivers.

Dr. Richard Gerstell, state Civil Defense director, said his agency is coordinating preparations for any emergency. All involved organizations are ready to go into action immediately, he said Friday.

Weather and water experts have expressed some concern about flood possibilities should the present accumulation of snow be washed into the rivers by rain. The problem would be compounded by thick ice on rivers and streams.

Gerstell said advance preparations are concerned in the main with the checking of equipment, such as power generators, water pumps and portable radio equipment, plus stocking food and bedding.

Stockpiled At Gap
Civil Defense has most of its equipment stockpiled at the Indian Gap military reservation.

Other equipment is stored at strategic locations in Lehigh, Carbon County, Selinsgrove, Snyder County, and Butler.

The State Forests and Waters Department Thursday issued a statement on snow and ice conditions compiled by the federal-state flood forecasting service.

The ice situation is potentially most dangerous in the Delaware and Susquehanna River basins and the Lower Monongahela River area of the Ohio River basin, the department said.

"A combination of rapid melting and heavy rain could cause widespread flooding," it added.

Gerstell said CD has had to turn down numerous requests by river communities for equipment on grounds it would be spread too thin.

"The communities will be supplied equipment when necessary," he added.

The Civil Defense council has a rescue helicopter of its own and has made arrangements with the air force and the state aeronautics commission for more aircraft as needed.

Touring State
Area CD directors are touring the state to make sure residents know their community's flood stage and where citizens should report if a flood hits.

Gerstell said the Pennsylvania National Guard, the highways and health departments and other state agencies also have made plans.

In event of widespread flooding, activities will be coordinated from Harrisburg through the Civil Defense statewide communications system and the national warning system which has a voice line to all state police barracks.

Titan Takes Big Step

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The intercontinental-range Titan missile took a big step toward its midsummer operational goal Friday when an improved model streaked 5,000 miles to the South Atlantic.

The success was the first after two failures for the advanced Titan, which is essentially the operational design.

The first combat-ready Titans are scheduled to be placed in protected underground silos at Lowry Air Force Base, Colo. Then the Air Force plans a fast three-year buildup of 14 squadrons, each with 10 missiles.

An electronic blinker which flashed with 22-million candlepower brilliancy at half-second intervals marked the 98-foot giant's course as it sped across the sky about an hour after midnight.

West Indies Renews U.S. Bases Pact

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (AP)—A pledge that the new West Indies Federation will remain "unequivocally west of the Iron Curtain and not east of it" was made Friday by the Prime Minister of Trinidad at the signing of a new agreement on U. S. military bases here.

Eric Williams, scholarly leader of the new federation spanning the Caribbean, warned that as the West Indies move toward independence from Britain they will not be immune "from those subversive tactics rooted in treachery and intrigue."

Good Will

The signing was conducted in an atmosphere of good will notably lacking in many other emerging nations. John Hay Whitney, former U. S. ambassador to London who negotiated the agreement on the bases, signed it for the United States. Prime Minister Sir Grantley Adams of the federation signed for the West Indies.

The United States took over the bases in 1941 under a deal for old destroyers between Franklin D. Roosevelt and Winston Churchill. The defense capability of the bases now is more or less obsolete, and these crowded islands need their 61,680 acres.

All but a small part of that land — on Trinidad, St. Lucia, Jamaica and Antigua — will be handed over to the federation, which also will receive $2 million in economic aid for allowing the United States to retain an antisubmarine base at Chaguaramas on Trinidad. The rest of the base will be the site of the federation's new capital. The pact comes up for review in 17 years and can be extended by mutual agreement.

Highest Rocket Thrust

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. (AP)—The highest known rocket thrust ever achieved—1,550,000 pounds — was produced at Edwards rocket base in California Friday, the Federal Space Agency announced.

The announcement said the test was of a prototype thrust chamber for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration's F1 liquid propellant rocket engine.

The thrust produced in Friday's test was more than all eight engines of the Saturn super booster are designed to produce.

NASA said the record thrust was sustained for a few seconds before the test was terminated as planned.

Single Unit

The F1 engine is a single unit designed to produce the same thrust as Saturn's eight engines.

The H1 engine now used in the Saturn is a kerosene-type fuel and liquid oxygen engine. It produces 188,000 pounds of thrust. All eight engines produce 1,500,000 pounds thrust.

The announcement emphasized that the firing was of a prototype thrust chamber, and not an entire engine.

The F1 engine itself still is in the development stage.

It is expected that it will be completed by 1963 or 1964 in time for possible use in a fifth generation rocket.

The Saturn super booster is now being put through a final series of static tests here in contemplation of its launching possibly later this year. It will be launched at Cape Canaveral, Fla., with upper stages in ballast.

Ford To Close Chester Plant

CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—Ford Motor Co. announced Friday it will close its Chester assembly plant, employing 1,500 hourly and salaried employees, and put the property up for sale.

Thomas R. Reid, Ford's civil and governmental affairs manager, said every effort will be made to transfer the employees to other assembly operations throughout the nation, including Metuchen and Mahwah, N. J., and Norfolk, Va.

Reid said the Chester plant will be closed March 15.

Plan Investigation

France Regrets Firing On Soviet Brass' Plane

PARIS (AP) — France Friday formally expressed sincere regrets to the Soviet Union for French jet fighter plane's burst of tracer bullets across the nose of a plane carrying Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev.

The Foreign Ministry said the French charge d'affaires in Moscow, Jean de la Grandville, was received Friday night at the Soviet Foreign Ministry his own request to deliver the French apology along with a pledge to make a full investigation.

The French ministry said that although the government still awaits results of an investigation into Thursday's incident over the Mediterranean, De La Grandville

"expressed, here and now, in any case, the sincere regrets of the French government."

It appeared likely President Charles de Gaulle himself ordered the apology.

The Foreign Ministry said that although the Soviet government had filed a flight plan on Brezhnev's plane, the investigation so far showed that the Russian plane had not completely observed the plan and had veered southward from its posted itinerary.

A diplomatic storm was blowing, with the Soviets accusing the French of "international banditry." Officials in Morocco, where Brezhnev's plane landed, declared the French planes could have touched off World War III.

In Moscow the official and man-in-the-street reaction was reported even more bitter than that over the downing of the U2 spy plane of Francis Gary Powers.

French officials in Algiers issued a communique blaming the incident on what it called the failure of the Soviet pilot of the four-engine turboprop plane to follow proper flight procedure. The Soviet Embassy in Rabat, Morocco, angrily replied that the Algiers statement was false.

The Soviets said the plane was on a course previously outlined to Paris when three swift twin-jet Vultures appeared and one fired two streams of tracer bullets.

French authorities in Algiers said the Soviets filed a flight plan running 87 miles north of Algeria and the plane was intercepted when it flew in far south of this route.

The Soviet pilot insisted he was 80 miles north on the boundary of the "zone of responsibility" patrolled by French planes and ships to halt gun running to the Algerian nationalist rebels.

Throwing Of Snowballs Forbidden

STROUDSBURG Police will prosecute anyone caught or reported throwing snowballs into or across streets in the borough, Chief John Tretheway said yesterday.

Tretheway reported that several cars had been hit and yesterday afternoon a woman was struck in the face by a snowball as she drove past a group of high school students on W. Main St.

"There is a state law against throwing any missile into or across a road, street or highway," the chief said.

Whimper Saves Girl

NEW BRUNSWICK, N.J. (AP) — A faint whimper led a volunteer searcher early Friday to a snowslide where a 4-year-old girl was buried alongside her home for 10 hours.

The child, Rose Mary Kinsey, was taken to Middlesex General Hospital suffering from severe exposure. She is reported in fair condition and "doing very nicely."

Police Chief George Kane said snow from an adjacent rooftop apparently knocked the girl over and covered her as she was playing outside her home Thursday afternoon.

While 200 volunteers combed the community — concentrating their efforts on the nearby Raritan River canal and a 13-story apartment building under construction — Rose Mary was buried in the snow less than two feet from her parents' bedroom.

An out-of-town visitor, William J. Keetley, 33, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., found the child.

The Saxons had a word for Spring. It was Lencten, shortened, in time, to Lent.

So the name Lent was given to that springtime period of 40 fast days from Ash Wednesday until Easter.

Lent came to mean a time of penitence. And it is. But it is also a time of preparation, and of promise. For because Lent means Spring, it heralds good things to come. It forecasts the glorious message of Easter. It is the dawn of the most beautiful season of the year.

The bare branches of these trees will burst into bud and leaf with the touch of Spring. Our thoughts during Lent, our personal preparations, also will reach fruition when the 40 days are through.

Lent is the time for prayer and self-examination. Make this Lenten season really mean something by seeking help and guidance at your church services.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Experts, trained to spot business trends that the layman is not supposed to be able to see, have come up with the conclusion that the buying habits of businesses and individuals have changed. And this, they say, is what caused the current recession.

Why business has undergone what amounts to a revolutionary shift in inventory policy is an unresolved question which had better be left with the experts.

But you don't have to be an economist to know that individuals have cut down on their buying because many of them (nearly 5,500,000) are out of jobs—and they're out of jobs because other individuals also have cut down on their buying.

Opinions Of Other Editors

Stern Protection For Competition

It is a strange and pathetic sight when men of relatively high and respected positions in their communities, givers of themselves to worthy and charitable undertakings, are sentenced to terms in jail for violation of a federal law concerning the conduct of business.

This is what has taken place in Philadelphia in the pronouncing of punishment for price-fixing and bid-rigging by electrical companies contrary to the antitrust laws.

The charges which the defendants had conceded involved virtually every large manufacturer of electrical equipment in the United States. "This," said Chief Judge J. Cullen Ganey, "is a shocking indictment of a vast section of our economy, for what is really at stake here is the survival of the kind of economy under which America has grown to greatness, the free enterprise system."

It is important to keep this premise in view; for otherwise the moral factors involved become blurred and the

Meanwhile, the nation's key industry, steel, is rousing itself from the dumps where it has languished for the greater part of a year. Metal inventories apparently have been cut to the bone at last, and fabricators are talking to steel salesmen again.

But the situation is far from being as bright as steel executives would like to have it. They say the industry needs a "spark" to ignite demand, especially from the automobile industry.

Some of that spark could be used on the cold and piled-up snow that has slowed economic activity in much of the nation. What business and industry need most is a few more days of good weather, at least enough to melt frozen inventories.

situation to some may become actually incomprehensible. For the practices in which these sales executives engaged could be rationalized as stabilizing employment and were the normal activities of a prewar European cartel.

Yet the laws against collusion in bidding are not difficult to understand; and the reasons for them go to the very roots of preserving fair competition. Without room for independent judgment a new company could never rise, and the consumer would never get the benefit of the most efficient production.

Statements in the case leave somewhat moot the declared opinion of the judge that the victim here is "the organization man, the conformist," and that "the real blame is to be laid at the doorstep of the corporate defendants" and their top officials. But there is no doubt that Americans oppose control of their economy by an industrial oligarchy on much the same grounds they would oppose its control by a bureaucracy.

George Sokolsky Says . . .

Conversation Piece

She objects to war. She did not raise her children to be soldiers or to be slaughtered by an insane hydrogen bomb.

"There ought to be smart men in the government to cover a way not to have war with Russia and not to submit to Russia," she said.

"That is easy enough to say. Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower have all tried to find a way to peace, but this war constantly grows more costly. We send a missile 4000 miles on a target and they hurl a new Sputnik in orbit that is larger than any. In time, both countries will go broke."

"Still and all," she said, "it is not so bad to show off as long as it is nothing more than showing off. Nobody gets killed by showing off. It only costs money."

"But where is the money to come from? We are already complaining about taxes and about the debt and about the drain on gold. There are many ways of defeating a nation other than by what our grandfathers called war."

She angered. "Why do you bring in our grandfathers? War is war. In war people get killed. Nothing is so terrible as to get killed."

"Nothing but slavery," about everybody talks.

Slavery but do you mean to say that people like the Poles are actual slaves?" she asked.

"You object to British colonialism, to French and Belgian colonialism. You objected to Mussolini going into Ethiopia. You boycotted Japan because it conquered Manchuria. You would not wear silk stockings after that. You wept with Gandhi over India."

"But you are not at all bothered about the Latvians and Lithuanians, the Estonians and the Poles. You do not care about what happens to the Tibetans and the Nepalese. Really, how do you make such a sharp distinction between one kind of imperialism and another?"

"It seems to me that you raise difficult questions," she said. "What happens in Latvia will not involve us in war. But why should we go to war over Berlin?"

"Twice we went to war with the Krauts and all of a sudden, they become very important to us. Now you want my sons to be killed about a bunch of people who when I was a girl we called Huns. Maybe you think it was wrong to go to war with Hitler?"

"My personal opinion is the same as George Washington's, but the majority of our fellow citizens disagreed with George Washington and with me. They voted for a President who was dedicated to the elimination of Hitler but not of Stalin. Out of that war, came our present enemy, Soviet Russia. What do you say to that?"

She was frankly puzzled. "The world is so grown up. We know so much about everything. Why can't the Russians mind their own business and we should mind our own business. Then there will be no war."

"Your attitude is excellent. But history is against such sanity as you propose. In every period, a ruler or a group arises which has all the answers to all the problems that face mankind. Soviet Russia believes that in Marxism it has found a scientific answer to everything."

"A Communist is dedicated to the ideal of bringing all the world to Marxism, to the destruction of all other sociological, ethical, economic and political systems which exist upon the face of the Earth. They make war by unorthodox methods—propaganda, subversion, infiltration into other governments and so on. Thus far, we have established that we cannot be defeated by such methods."

"But both we and they are in a race to prove that the weapons are available not only to annihilate each other but to destroy the world. Thus far, both sides have talked for time, proving that neither side is yet ready to fight. But when the preparations are so massive, how can one be sure that there will be no fighting?"

"This we know. Neither the ocean nor the sky is any longer a protective shield. For protection we are dependent upon radar, upon sonic exploration, upon all kinds of new weapons and new vehicles, each of which is eating us into poverty. You want us to be sane but you do not ask the enemy to be sane. You saw Khrushchev on television act like a wild boar at the United Nations."

"My lady was upset by what I said. She could only answer, 'I don't want my sons killed in war.'"

Inside You And Yours

Picnic Killer

By Burton H. Fern, M.D.
The old folks said Sue had "brain fever," but doctors called it "encephalitis"—sleeping sickness. Virus germs had attacked her brain.

Where did she get it? Well, Sue and the gang had sweated through July and August until they discovered a perfect oasis—a picnic grove. Swarms of mosquitoes patrolled the grounds, but the air was cool, the music cooler and friendships warm.

The owner of the grove welcomed them because he had cleared away those hundreds of cans and bottles and stacked them behind the trees.

But one mosquito had picked up the sleeping sickness germ from a wild turkey. This buzzing astronaut injected brain fever into Sue's system.

Symptoms Develop
Soon her head throbbed. The pain increased. Every bone and muscle ached and she twisted and turned in agony. Shaking chills seized her and tossed her from side to side.

The foot of her hospital bed drifted miles away. Her feverish flush and deep tan melted into the bronze tint of a Cherokee.

The glass shook when she tried to drink and the water came right back up.

Finally she relaxed into coma. Her stiff back made doctors think of polo.

But soon other members of the gang arrived at the hospital, some hardly sick, others in coma. They all had encephalitis.

While many germs may infect the brain, some are specialists. They change with your time zone.

Along the Atlantic you find the Eastern virus. Around St. Louis, another type! And beyond the Dakotas, a Western virus roams the prairie.

The Japanese have an Oriental virus. Russia can claim her own encephalitis germs. They strike in late spring. Capitalistic viruses attack in late summer.

No Cure
Sleeping sickness has to burn itself out. There's no cure. Doctors nourish patients with fluid, food, oxygen and hope! Slowly the temperature will fall and the patient will awaken. Many victims recover completely, without any permanent brain damage.

In Sue's home town, special commissions had oiled down and eliminated those stagnant ponds where mosquitoes breed. Everyone looked for a pond they had missed.

Meanwhile, back at the grove, mosquitoes continued to breed in hundreds of stagnant pools—those old cans and bottles partially filled with rain water!

Off The Record

Everybody it seems lauds the efforts of television, especially gossip columnists who plug certain individuals or a show.

Sometimes these inside-dopers have a personal feud going on but more times than not it is like the old Ben Bernie and Walter Winchell hassle which each carried on to promote their own programs.

P.S.—Winchell and the Old Maestro were the best of friends despite name-calling on the air.

From time to time we'll attempt to bring out the worst on video. However, we know all will not agree with our deductions. After all—even the devil has his fans.

Today's episode deals with the "Tall Man", a fantasy that stars Barry Sullivan as the famed marshal of bygone days—Pat Garrett—and his sidekick Garrett supposedly shot—Billy the Kid.

According to legend, Billy never reached the age of 21 but this character on the 21-inch screen is well in his thirties.

But that doesn't matter too much because Billy shakes off the years with the best case of epilepsy seen by these eyes in years.

We honestly don't know how The Kid gets by each program from start to finish. He starts moving every muscle in his body from the time the script opens to the end. It's no wonder Sullivan looks so desolate at the final. A man, even with such a background as Garrett's can take so much.

We imagine the arm-chair western lovers cross their legs, pull them back, sit on them and finally wish they were off when the final episode arrives. But Billy shakes on and the viewer is forced to head for the icebox—that's if he can crawl on his knees.

The writers of the "Tall Man" have a gimmick up their sleeves at all times. They have to portray Sullivan as a law-abiding man and a marshal who acts only in the best interests of the citizens. So when a case gets too tough for Patrick—we adore Billy's way of addressing the Barry—they call in The Kid to finish off the hombre.

This is easily done because The Kid has no scruples and can perform the chore admirably. Of course this is all right because he is a personal friend of Garrett the man who actually killed him.

Confusing, yes. But so is Brand X.

Oh well, what's a half hour of shakes, coupled with distortion and blended with commercials that 30 minutes of sickening events make us forget the name of the sponsor.

Anyone for the nuthouse?

The Allen-Scott Report

Nuclear Bomb Carrier

By Robert S. Allen and Paul Scott

Washington — Pentagon authorities are much more concerned about that seven-ton Russian Sputnik than they are publicly admitting — and with very good reason.

From highly significant secret indications there is strong reason to believe this record-breaking satellite, about which the Soviet has been so mysteriously silent, is the prototype of a nuclear bomb-carrying space vehicle.

Both Russia and the U.S. have been working on such projects for some time. The Sputnik is believed to be a test model of this type of nuclear weapon.

It is also possible to report that U.S. scientists were immediately aware of the launching of this Sputnik and were tracking it within moments thereafter. Also that President Kennedy was apprised of the matter some 20 hours before Moscow finally announced it.

This was a reversal of President Eisenhower's policy. His procedure was to beat the Russians to the draw on such disclosures.

After President Kennedy was informed of this launching, his scientist advisers urged that nothing be said about it. Their reasons are chiefly of a classified nature.

How ever, this is not a fixed rule. It's subject to change at any time. The President stressed that in his inner council discussions.

Other significant publishable details regarding this mysterious Sputnik are:

It is believed to consist of several or more compartments which, in response to signals from ground stations, can be detached and dropped at specific points around the globe. These compartments or sections could be armed with nuclear bombs.

Deemed as tending strongly to confirm this theory is the continued presence in the Central Pacific of those four Russian ships that took up station there a month ago. These vessels, under constant U.S. scrutiny, are known to have much radar and other electronic equipment — obviously for tracking and signaling purposes. Also several of the ships have helicopters that could recover capsules from the ocean.

Those puzzling reputed moaning and heartbeat sounds are thought to be signals to the satellite from Soviet ground stations and relayed back. However, some U.S. scientists do not wholly discount the possibility that an animal in one of the compartments slated to be released.

Samos II, the reconnaissance satellite the U.S. put into orbit four days before the seven-ton Sputnik was launched, played a major role in its immediate detection. The "eye-in-the-sky" Samos traverses Russia seven times daily. The satellite is equipped with cameras capable of taking detailed pictures that are relayed to ground stations by "TV transmission."

The U.S. now has a worldwide satellite detection system — Spasur, for space surveillance. Samos II is an important component of this far-flung sky-spanning electronic system.

What They're Reading — Justice William O. Douglas' latest book "A Living Bill of Rights" is being read by high Justice Department officials. It's a small volume analyzing the first 10 amendments to the Constitution as they relate to major contemporary problems . . . Philippine Ambassador Carlos Romulo is about to become an author for the tenth time. Due for publication next week is the noted diplomat-soldier's tenth book "I Walk with Heroes," dealing with world-famed leaders he has worked with . . . A.L. Todd, the son of a well-known Washington correspondent, is joining the rank of authors with a gripping account of the tragic 1881-84 Greeley Arctic Expedition.

Titled "Abandoned," the book has a foreword by Vilhjalmur Stefansson, famous explorer.

Social Whirl — When one protocol chief gives a party for another, it's bound to be something special. That was definitely the case of the reception of Paul Murphy, protocol head of the Pan-American Union, for the State Department's new protocol chief Angier Biddle Duke. Not only was it loftily attended, but the buffet was super-super. It was the personal work of Manuel Ramirez, Murphy's assistant, whose hobby is cooking. Every dish was a masterpiece, such as tiny hot balls of corned beef and sauerkraut, pale slices of chicken galantine, frail tarts filled with shrimp, cornucopias with whipped cream, dairy sweets made entirely of egg yolks, and huge strawberries speared with toothpicks for dipping in kirsch-flavored cream. Fifty million calories, but who cared!

Lobbying activity in the current session of Congress is not confined to the major priority issues singled out for early action by President Kennedy. Many pressure groups, large and small, have legislative goals in other fields.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Veterans of World War I, for example, are lobbying for separate pensions for 1917-18 veterans; an organization known as Quality Brands Associates is pressing for legislation that would curb discount pricing practices; the coal industry is working for a national fuels policy; military equipment manufacturers are seeking an end to legislation enabling the Government to recapture sums paid out under defense contracts; and a trade policy group is trying to stem the flow of foreign-produced goods into the U.S.

2 Stroud Union Students Gain Top Academic Honors

TWO seniors at Stroud Union High School have been named finalists in the 1960-61 National Merit Scholarship Program competition and have been awarded Certificates of Merit.

Principal Alfred W. Munson announced that the following students have received Certificates which attest to their high academic promise: Mary Louise Lilius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Lilius, Cresco, and Charles Peter Eyer, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Theodore Price, 910 Main St., Stroudsburg.

The seniors attained finalist status by their distinguished performance on two tests and upon endorsement by their high school. About six-tenths of one per cent of the seniors in each state received the awards. Approximately 9,800 students in the 50 states and in United States territories were honored.

"The Certificate of Merit winners represent our most valuable national resource, our talented youth," said John M. Stalnaker, president of the National Merit Scholarship Corp. "These exceptionally able students deserve the recognition and encouragement of every citizen concerned with the future of America."

Selected in April

The Merit Scholars, to be announced April 27, 1961, will be selected from the finalist group. They will receive scholarships from the resources of the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and from sponsoring business corporations, foundations, associations, and individuals.

The names of all who achieved Semifinalist status in the competition were published in a booklet which was then distributed to colleges and other sources of scholarships and financial aid. Previous experience indicates that more than half of the Finalists will be offered assistance from sources other than the Merit Program.

Merit Scholarships are four-year awards, and carry stipends that range from $100 a year to $1500 a year. Each stipend is individually determined on the basis of need. The amount is based upon family resources, summer earnings, and college costs, all of which vary for each winner.

Most Merit Scholarships also are accompanied by grants to the colleges. Each student chooses his college and course of study. Gaining admission to college is the responsibility of the student.

Wayne Phones Switched To Dial

HONESDALE, Pa. (AP) — At 12:01 a.m. yesterday manual telephones in Wayne County became outdated, as Bell Telephone Co. of Pennsylvania switched to a dial system.

The manual service had been in service 60 years in the Honesdale-Pleasant Mount-Hawley area. About 6,000 subscribers were affected by the change-over.

The new telephones have 7-digit numbers, instead of the more common 2-letter-5-digit number. Under the new system, for example, the number Plaza 5-6000 becomes 755600.

Occupation Tax Costs Discussed

MONROE County Commissioners, attorneys representing the political subdivisions of Monroe County, and members of the school boards and political subdivisions met yesterday in the courthouse to discuss the problem of cost of collecting the County occupation tax.

Attorney Leo A. Achtermann said it is costing the county more than $7000 to collect the $20,000 tax. He pointed out that there could be a possible agreement between the boroughs and townships to help the county underwrite the cost for its collection.

The reason the cost of collection is so high is the assessors in the various subdivisions, he said. In some cases the bill turned into the commissioners for the work done has been more than taxes collected. However, bills turned in are too high, he pointed out.

Atty. Achtermann gave an example of one ward in East Stroudsburg where it cost the county approximately $600 to collect $700 in occupation taxes. He also cited several wards in Stroudsburg which ran high compared to the amount collected from the tax.

The meeting ended without any action being taken.

Cresco Man, 92, Dies In Philadelphia

MICHAEL J. McAndrew, 92, of Cresco, and a former employee of Buck Hill Falls Co., for forty years, died at 10:55 a.m. yesterday at Doctors' Hospital, Philadelphia, after a short illness.

McAndrew was the husband of the late Margaret Decker McAndrew and son of the late Michael and Anne Sweeney McAndrew. He was born in Hawley.

A resident of Barrett for the past fifty years, he retired from Buck Hill Falls Co. ten years ago after forty years of service. Prior to coming to Barrett area, he was locomotive engineer for Erie Railroad.

He was a member of St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church, Canadensis, Holy Name Society, and Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Surviving are three sisters, Miss Loretta McAndrew, Miss Alice McAndrew both of Cresco and Mrs. James Coughlin of Scranton. Also several nieces and nephews.

Requiem High Mass will be sung Tuesday at 10 a.m., at St. Ann's Church. Msgr. C. A. McHugh will officiate. Interment will be in St. Philomena Cemetery, Hawley.

Friends and relatives may pay their respects after 7 p.m. Monday at the William H. Clark Funeral Home. Rosary services will be said at 8 p.m.

Mr. Troubles No Bother But Big Asset To Owner

By TONY CESARE

TROUBLES hit the newsroom of the Daily Record yesterday but no one seemed to mind it in the least.

In fact, it was one of the greatest pleasures ever to invade the news center of the paper.

"Troubles" is the lovable, talented Collie dog, called Mr. Troubles of motion pictures and TV fame. Mr. Troubles, unlike the harsh sound of his title, is a lively and dog-gone smart animal who can perform over 200 tricks.

The dog's maneuvers and tricks were almost unbelievable. It definitely is impossible to describe how human-like he went about performing his assigned duties without a whimper or a sound from his master.

The master is Tex Chambers of Belvidere, N. J., who is also his trainer and manager. Chambers visited the offices to chat and renew old acquaintances after local appearances.

Answers Phone

Mr. Troubles stopped production of the newspaper for hours as he went about demonstrating a few of his tricks in his repertoire. The dog answered the telephone, banged away at a typewriter, limped across the floor, picked up a rival newspaper and deposited it in the waste basket and shook hands with some of the scribes. When he got thirsty, he made his way to the water fountain, pressed the knob and took a drink of water.

Words or phrases just couldn't express accurately the ability of the animal.

"I have to write down the 200 plus tricks that he can obey on command," said Chambers, but he doesn't. The one thing that made Mr. Troubles suitable for the movies and TV is that he can obey commands without a word from his master. Words or other sounds would interfere with the movies in production and is prohibited.

Chambers, who purchased the animal at a Hollywood SPCA shelter for $5.50, has earned a sizable income from the dog's talents. The figures sometime reach six digits.

Chambers had originally sought the dog for a pet. But it learned so quickly that he soon was requested to put him in the movies. His skill was such that it spread to the television media.

Mr. Troubles will appear on "I Got A Secret" TV program sometime this summer. This is in addition to his prior commitments in which he played the part of "Nameless" in the movie "Come, Fill The Cup," with James Cagney; was "Blitz" in the movie "Trail Blazers" with Alan Hale, Jr.; and held the flashlight for a burglar to rob Joe McDookes' safe in the movie "So You Love Your Dog."

Played Checkers

In television, Mr. Troubles played checkers with Red Skelton, appeared on "Play Your Hunch" and was star of a TV movie entitled "Alias Troubles."

Some movies have a number of dogs that can only perform certain tricks. Sometimes to make a picture each dog has to do his part. But Mr. Troubles can do all the tricks himself which makes him a standout.

"When I got the dog on Nov. 11, 1950," Chambers said, "he looked so forlorn, I thought he was dumb and almost didn't take him," the owner sighed. As it turned out, it was one of the best moves ever made by Chambers.

"However," he continued, "the worst was when I named him Mr. Troubles. I gave him the name before he appeared in movies. But many of the directors and producers were skeptical of the name and hesitated to use the Collie." It took Chambers a long time to break the barrier but he finally did.

Mr. Troubles has gained friendships with such Hollywood personalities as Gloria Graham, Marilyn Monroe, Jonathan Winters, Red Skelton and many more.

Just Between Us —

—By Bobby Westbrook

Take the number of meetings on the calendar for this week, multiply it by at least 50 and you'll have an idea of the number of sighs of relief going up for every day we don't have another snow storm.

However, one word of warning—you may not need your snow boots, but if you have to cross a street or get from the car to the curb—wear hip-boots or go with Sir. Walter. Melting snow with no place to go is over your shoe tops in the most unexpected places.

Beware, too, of the unexpected feeling of elation that creeps over you when the sun comes up just a little bit earlier and you wake to silence without the radiators pounding their month-long tune.

When you find you can unhunch your shoulders driving the car in full sunlight or leave groceries in the car without the milk getting ice on top. When supper time sneaks up on you because you've been letting the dark remind you to start the potatoes.

Sure the year is turning and spring is coming and the Girl Scout leaders are planning outdoor activities, but so are the kids of March and colds in the head—good pneumonia weather.

Wary—that's the way I feel about the weather this year.

Anniversary Luncheon Set By WSCS

Girl Scout Leaders Invested In Ceremony

Eight Girl Scout adults received Girl Scout Pins in an investiture ceremony at the Girl Scout House, marking the end of their training period during which they have been working on troop government, program planning and other fundamentals of Girl Scouting.

Mrs. Lena Peters, Margaret Mannhaupt, Betty Swineford, Mona Pinder, Mary Moeller, Claribel Sebring, Eve Zateeny and Doris Possinger.

Further training will be given March 7 from 10 to 12 and 7:30 to 9:30 in preparation for the outdoor activities in Scout troops. This training session will be followed by an out-door session to be held at Camp Lloyd Treible.

Mrs. Mary Gearhart is chairman of the council training committee with Mrs. Gilbert Scharf and Mrs. Roger Acker as Volunteer Trainers and Mrs. George Wakefield and Mrs. Paul Flory assisting.

Sewing Girls Mark Birthdays Of 8 Members

The Wednesday Sewing Girls of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church celebrated the birthdays of eight members born in January or February this week: Frances Stiff, Blanche Shaffer, Myrtle Reynolds, Becky Strunk, Myrtle Marvin, Jennie Clifton, Rosie Woelcke and Lydia Bisbing.

There were 23 present. A lunch of barbecue, pickles, potato chips and decorated birthday cake was served with Maggie Shields and Grace Friant as the cooks.

During the work sessions, one group worked cutting and sewing new garments for the WSCS. Ingathering while the rest made nine dozen bed pads for the use of visiting nurses and two dozen for use by Dr. Nina Mae Price.

Four new members were welcomed. Grace Friant, chairman of sewing, and Stella Plattenburg, chairman of the cancer supplies, announced that there was always room for more.

Lodge Honors Memory of Mary Brown

At the meeting of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty this week the charter in the Odd Fellows Hall was draped in memory of Mary Brown who joined the order on April, 1928 and was an active member until illness prevented her attendance.

Esther Carson, deputy for Bright Star Council, Bangor, reported on the installation of officers there. Plans were made to attend the George Washington Banquet to be held in Philadelphia on Feb. 24.

The Tri-County Boosters Assn. will meet in Allentown on March 16 and the Middle District Deputies will meet in Mechanicsburg on March 18.

A social hour and refreshments followed the meeting. The Past Officers will meet and serve refreshments after the next meeting Feb. 21.

Note to Brides: If you are having a recipe, and you want to divide an egg do it this way. Beat the egg until the yolk and white are combined and measure the whole thing; then use half the measure.

Wrap that pound cake tightly and allow it to stand overnight before slicing; as a rule this stay improves flavor and texture.

Valentine Party Today At St. Paul's

A Valentine Party will be held this afternoon at St. Paul's Lutheran Sunday School, Craig Meadow, for children from nursery school through the protees. Each child is asked to bring a Valentine, not addressed on the outside but signed on the inside.

In addition to the Valentine box there will be songs and games, ping pong and a puppet show. Anyone with puppets may bring them. Refreshments will include home made ice cream.

Mothers and fathers are invited. Any child who does not have transportation may call Mrs. Doris Heeter or his own Sunday school teacher.

Music Club Program On V. Herbert

The annual February "Parade of American Composers" will be featured at the meeting of the Music Study Club of the Stroudsburgs on Tuesday night at 7:30 at Zion United Church of Christ, North Eighth St., Stroudsburg.

Featured this year will be "Victor Herbert, the Man and his Music" with Dorothy Dunn and Albert Yutz as chairman. The hymn of the month will be presented by Marjorie Barnes.

Ann George, club president, has asked all members bring them new three or four-cent stamps or air mail stamps to be used in a project to provide the state award for American Composers of Pennsylvania.

The chorus practice will begin promptly at 7:30 and a brief meeting of the executive board will follow the program.

Life in Africa Program For Wesleyan Guild

Mrs. Zella Jensen, a member of the Wesleyan Service Guild who has spent some time in Africa, will be in charge of the program at the meeting of the Stroudsburg guild on Tuesday night at 8 p.m. at the Methodist Church.

She will show movies she took and will tell of her experiences there. Members are asked to bring a friend to the meeting.

Stork Shower At Schoolhouse For Mrs. Miller

Also sending gifts were Berneta Kresge, Kate Maier, Hannah Kresge, Esther Tucker, Eleanor Tucker, Esther Ehrigood, Elise Shafer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith and son, Laura Brewer, Olive Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. William Leap and family, Mrs. Charles Huhn Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schuler, Helen Koffner, Rosemary Neal, Tevilla Koffner, Genevieve Altemose and Gwendie Hahn.

Valentine refreshments were served.

Presbytery Affirms Aid

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Pittsburgh Presbytery on yesterday reaffirmed its support of fair housing legislation for Pennsylvania.

The Presbytery, representing 229 churches in Allegheny County, took the stand following a four-hour debate at the presbytery's monthly meeting, which was attended by some 200 ministers and elders.

A bill passed Wednesday by the State Senate bans discrimination in the sale and rental of dwellings. The bill will now go before the House for action.

Spicy Show For Woman's Club Meeting Monday

Cooking secrets will be confided to members of the Woman's Club of the Stroudsburgs at their meeting on Monday at the Stroud Community House. The speaker will be Dorothy Irene Faas, noted for her unusual recipes.

Some of the secrets go back hundreds of years in the history of "Herbs and Spices" which is her subject. She will use colored slides to identify herbs and explain their use. She will prepare sample recipes for everyday and company menus. As a feature of the program there will be an exhibit of products to see and taste.

Mrs. Faas will also tell how and what to grow in a kitchen window-box or in the flower border and will demonstrate drying and preparing herbs for winter use. Mrs. Robert A. Miller, program chairman, suggests that members bring pad and pencil to take notes on the talk.

Mrs. William Hannas will preside at the business meeting when a final report will be given of the recent card party. All money or tickets should be returned at this time.

A refreshment time at 1:30 will precede the meeting at 2 p.m.

Water Gap WSCS
Delaware Water Gap — The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist Church will meet Tuesday night at 8 at the home of Mrs. Charles Rapp.

The East Stroudsburg Elementary Parent-Teachers Assn. will hold a Country Fair the early part of June it was announced at the meeting held this week at the J. M. Hill school with Irving Sommers presiding.

Dr. James Fahl will be chairman of the project assisted by Nancy Rine, Constance Mervine, Beverly Kolcum, Elizabeth Staples, Stella Plattenburg and Margaret Delk.

The PTA also voted to cooperate with the Secondary PTA in taking the school census. Barbara Samet and Nancy Rine were named to the planning committee.

The program, moderated by Mrs. Samet, was devoted to the elementary cafeteria and how it worked.

John Lambert, principal, explained that two 30-minute lunch periods were provided and that pupils were encouraged to try all of the food on their trays.

Monday is collecting day for lunch money although money from absentees will be accepted on the day they return. Free lunches are given on the recommendation of the school nurse.

Miss Charlotte Shupp, he explained.

James Bunnell, a member of the cafeteria committee of the Area Joint Board, described their task in equipping and staffing the new cafeteria. Members of the committee included hotel and resort owners and an electrical man. They also screened applicants for workers and recommended their findings to the joint board who did the actual hiring.

Ida Gray who is in charge of planning the menus outlined how they were set up. There are two cooks and 11 workers, she explained. The food for the J. M. Hill school is packed in vacuum kettles and transported by jeep.

Trays and silver are returned to the main cafeteria for washing.

Verna Miller, a worker, spoke on the reaction of the children themselves to the hot lunches. Sometimes it's difficult to tell whether the children's "gripes" are for real or just teasing.

A question period followed and members visited the cafeteria to see the work being done to complete the change-over from one room to the new serving area.

Valentine refreshments were served.

New Chapter Of SPEBSQS Here-- ??, They Sing.

Local men who have been meeting informally in a Barber Shop Harmony group, plan to form a chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc.

Operating on an international scale, the organization has 26,000 members in more than 600 chapters. Organized in 1938, the organization has rigid requirements for membership: eligible are males, free, adult, congenial, of good repute, who can sing and those who can't but want to learn or are satisfied to listen.

Any citizens of the community interested in joining may get in touch with Clinton Frantz, HA 1-1423.

The group meets every Tuesday night at the Stroudsburg Methodist Church.

Stroud Club Has Talk on Contact Lens

The Stroud Community Club heard a talk on "Contact Lenses" given by Dr. Gail Fegley at their meeting on Thursday night at the YMCA. Model for the demonstration was Philip Katz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Katz.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Manuel Deus, chairman of a project team, announced the last project will be a rummage sale on April 7 and 8.

Named to the nominating committee were Florina Felker, Mrs. J. Paul Hart and Mrs. Jack Baldwin.

Members interested in singing in the county chorus were asked to call the music chairman, Mrs. L. James Morgan Jr.

The next board meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Laurence Clugston on Feb. 23.

Hostesses were Mrs. Manuel Deus, Mrs. L. Clugston, Mrs. L. Musselman, Mrs. T. Kirk, Mrs. A. Blewitt, Mrs. Richard Altemose and Mrs. Dorothy Sandt.

Crownbearers Named For May Day Fete

Newfoundland—Southern Wayne Joint School students have elected Bonnie Rohrbacker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rohrbacker, of Panther, and Andrew Akers, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Akers, Newfoundland, as crownbearers in the annual May Day program. They were chosen by popular vote of the class.

Bonnie has played in the school band for eight years and has been a member of the school chorus for four years. She is a member of both Wayne County Chorus and Band. She is captain of the cheerleaders, having been a squad member for two years. She was vice president of the Senior Tri-Hi-Y last year and is president this year, and was a member of the cast of the junior play, "No More Homework." She is a past secretary of the class.

Bonnie is a member of the Moravian Church and its youth choir, and is often a soloist. She is a member of the Greentown-Newfoundland-South Sterling Youth Fellowship. She plans to enroll at East Stroudsburg State College.

"Andy" is captain of the Stags, the SJWS basketball team, and is a member of the baseball team. He is senior class treasurer, and has been a band member for eight years and chorus, four. He is a member of the Moravian Church and of the MYF. He is District President of Explorer Scouts and has been elected to Order of the Arrow, Scout fraternity. He was a member of the 1959 Philmont Expedition. He was a member of the cast of the junior play, and plans to go to college next Fall.

Parents Assn.
Dr. Frank Stills of the East Stroudsburg State College Faculty will be the guest speaker at the meeting of St. Matthew's Parents Assn. at the school auditorium on Monday night at 8. He will speak on "The Heart" and a question period will follow.

Slater Girls Beaten 34-22; League Ends In Deadlock

BANGOR — Pen Argyl girls' basketball team whipped Bangor 34-22 Friday in the final game of the Lehigh-Northampton Girls' League.

Pen Argyl, Bangor and Wilson Boro are tied for first place in the league but league officials have not decided whether to have a play-off to break the deadlock.

Lois DeNicerola scored 14 points for the winners while Jeanne Butz had nine for the Slaters.

Bangor led 6-4 after one

Leroy Gains Point Lead

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The individual basketball scoring lead average in the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics is held by a player who has taken part in only two games.

Dick Leroy, Tabor College of Hillsboro, Kan., scored 71 points in those two games through last week, giving him an average of 35.5. He topped John Bradley, Lawrence (Mich.) Tech., who has an average of 32.6.

Top individual field goal shooter is Norman Gehr, Martin branch of the University of Tennessee, who racked up a percentage of .647. Runner-up is Truitt Weldon, Northwest Louisiana, with .632. Cleveland Buckner, Jackson (Miss.) State, the previous week's leader, was third with .630.

Dean Larson, Fort Hay (Kan.) State moved to the top in free throw shooting, 89 of 98 attempts for .908.

The leading rebounder is Zelmo Beatty of Prairie View (Tex.) College with a 23.6 average.

period but Pen Argyl took the lead at the half, with an eight point second period. The Green Knight girls added 22 points in the final half to seal the win.

Pen Argyl collected only two more field goals than Bangor, 11, but hit 12 foul shots. Bangor made on four free throws.

Ingemar Gets New Partner

PALE BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Ingemar Johansson worked out Friday with a new sparring partner.

Johansson had asked the Kokkonen because he said the Finn's style was similar to that of Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson. Earlier reports indicated Kokkonen was having difficulty getting permission to make the trip because of his political views.

ment given to newsmen by Executive Director Mark N. Funk.

Funk said the action was approved unanimously by the 21-member board.

It followed a ruling passed by the National Collegiate Athletic Association at its annual convention in Pittsburgh last month. That ruling held that all-star football or basketball games involving athletes who have graduated from high school but have not yet entered college must be sanctioned by the appropriate state high school athletic association or the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations.

This was the same stand Funk himself had taken when the rule was passed at the NCAA convention.

It was reported at the news conference that other state associations had taken or were planning similar steps, leaving the whole status of the new rule in doubt.

A player participating in an unsanctioned game would face the loss of one year of varsity eligibility in college.

The PIAA board took the position that it has no authority over an athlete who has graduated from high school.

This was the same stand Funk himself had taken when the rule was passed at the NCAA convention.

It was reported at the news conference that other state associations had taken or were planning similar steps, leaving the whole status of the new rule in doubt.

The PIAA is the largest of the 49 state high school associations in the national federation (Texas is not a member).

Funk said the PIAA board action did not constitute a withdrawal from the national federation. He added that he had advised the federation's secretary, Clifford B. Fagan, Chicago, of the board decision.

Wait And See
Asked what he might do if the federation pressed upon the PIAA to go along with the rule—which had been sought from the NCAA by the federation itself—Funk replied: "We'll cross that bridge if we come to it. Let's not assume a conflict where none exists."

The board statement said: "If the NCAA wishes to make the activities of an athlete, after graduation from high school and before entering college, a factor in its eligibility policy, that is its decision. It should not pass a rule which seeks to impose upon the high school associations the duty of application and enforcement, or the duty of approval or disapproval of contests over which the high school associations have no jurisdiction and no means of asserting control or responsibility."

The PIAA does not feel that even under the new rule it would have to make any decision on the annual game between a group of Pennsylvania high school football players (Big 33) and a select team of national high school stars.

"Under the rule, that would be a matter for the national federation," he said.

Bragg Feeling Like Old Man

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Don Bragg took a good look at himself Friday. He didn't like what he saw.

"I feel like an old man," complained the man who has pole vaulted higher than anyone in history before heading for the Philadelphia Inquirer meet Friday. "I have grey hair, the gout, hardening of the arteries and varicose veins."

"Why my doctor says he is surprised my veins haven't popped."

All this is just another way of saying that Bragg has had it. His long-dreamed of 16-foot vault will be made by someone else. His indoor record is 15-9½ made in this same Inquirer games just two years ago.

Bragg probably will call it a career at the end of the current season.

"Do you know," he asked half seriously, "how many times I have landed on my head? Plenty." A week ago in the Millrose Games in New York, he got just one 15-footer, and was beaten by Henry Wadsworth of the University of Florida. Less than a year ago, he would have been upset at the thought of losing.

"I guess I've lost most of my inspiration," Bragg said. "Before the Olympics (which he won) I really had something to aim for. No more, though, I don't even worry about losing any more. It used to break my heart to get beaten."

Moyer Sub In Fight With Scott

NEW YORK (AP)—Denny Moyer, a young middleweight of promise, steps in as a sub for Federico Thompson to box Charley Scott, a Philadelphia welterweight, Saturday night at Madison Square Garden.

Although Moyer is ranked No. 6 among the welters by Ring magazine and No. 10 by the National Boxing Association, he actually is a middleweight with designs on the title claimed by both Gene Fullmer and Paul Pender.

The 10-round match, to be carried by ABC network television, will start at 10 p.m. EST. Two judges and a referee will score it by rounds, using a supplementary point system in case of even rounds. Scott was beaten twice by Kid Paret before the Cuban won the welter title. He lost to Ralph Dupas in Australia last fall but then traveled to Manila where he knocked out Rocky Kalingo in one round. He expects to weigh about 149 and will give away about six pounds.

Coplay Wins 42-40 Over Cavaliers

EAST Stroudsburg failed to sink a field goal with 15 seconds remaining in the contest and dropped a 42-40 thriller to Coplay last night in a Lehigh-Northampton League game.

The Cavaliers were trailing by a single point 41-40, on their home floor when Glenn Kane intercepted a pass and rolled for what would have been the winning goal. But the ball skidded out of bounds and the play never materialized.

In the ensuing play, as the seconds ticked off, East Stroudsburg drew a foul as the buzzer was sounding. Copley's John Churetta connected on the penalty and game ended 42-40.

But two other periods, in which they scored only 13 points, proved to be the fatal ones. Copley's play was just the opposite. The visitors held big margins in the first and third. The half closed with Cavaliers behind 20-17.

In an almost duplication of the second match, the East Stroudsburg JVs tripped Copley 63 to 62.

Churetta, with 11 points, was the game's leading scorer. He was followed closely by Ed Klusaritz, who registered 9 points.

The Cavaliers' Don Westcott, on five field goals and three fouls, paced the losers with 13 points. Kane with 9 and Harold Myers with 8, were runners-up in the scoring column.

Two big periods, the second and last kept the Cavaliers in the game.

Knights Swamp Slaters

PEN ARGYL—Action was fast and furious last night as the Green Knights of Pen Argyl routed arch-rival Bangor 94-67 in a Lehigh-Northampton loop contest.

The winners kept the hoops hopping as they dumped in 27 points in first period of play and then ripped for 32 more in following stanza.

The Bangor Slaters kept up the pace for first half then slid out of the picture as the intermission saw PA ahead 59-38.

Bangor's Jim Rehrig was game's top point producer with 26. Doug Heard followed with 14 points.

The play of four Knights who hit the double columns was too much for the losers.

Uliana Has 16
Emil Uliana gathered 16 points on eight field goals and Art Hahn collected 13 on six field goals and one foul.

The winner's top registers were Roger Snyder and Barry Young who totalled 19 points each.

Eleven PA court members saw action, with nine scoring.

The Pen Argyl JVs turned back the young Bangor Slaters 76 to 45 in the preliminary game.

Wisconsin Ups Ticket Price
MADISON, Wis. (AP)—University of Wisconsin football tickets will sell for $4.50 this fall, an increase of 50 cents from last season. The Board of Regents said the new price would keep Wisconsin's ticket fees in line with those charged by Purdue and Michigan State universities.

Leading Court Teams Keep Up Offense, Defense Pace
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Mississippi College on offense kept the individual scoring lead for the third straight week with 387 points for an average of 32.6 points a game. He is closely followed by Lebron Bell of Bryan with 386 points and a 32.2 average and Gene Velloff of Deane with 446 points and 31.9 average.

Jackie Jackson of Virginia Union continued at the top of the rebound list with 24.0 per game, and Dean Larson of Fort Hays State retained big free throw leadership with 89 out of a possible 98 and an average of .908. Jim Gallagher of Susquehanna took over the field goal shooting lead with 55 out of 86 for a .640 percentage.

Stags Top Lakers To Hold Lead

NEWFOUNDLAND — Southern Wayne High School continued to pace the Wayne County League as it dumped Lake Ariel 60 to 35 last night.

The winners are now 4-0 in league play and the Lakers 1 and 2 in the second half court action.

The Lakers, who captured the first-half title, were led by Roger Bell who gained top scoring honors with 20 points. Bob Strupcewski, with 12, Don Kimble with 12 and Jordan Desnus with 19 paved the way for the Stags' victory.

Slow Start
Both teams got off to a slow start as ball freezing consumed a great deal of time. The half ended in favor of SW, 19-13.

The Stags inched further ahead in the third frame and broke the contest wide open with a 28-point last period.

In the preliminary encounter, Southern Wayne yearlings tripped the Lakers 51-29.

Shippensburg Trims ESSC Matmen 16-12

SHIPPENSBURG State College scored a 16-12 wrestling win over East Stroudsburg State at Normal Hill last night, running the Warriors' losing streak to four in a row.

The lengthy matches that took more than two hours, preceded the East Stroudsburg-Shippensburg basketball game.

Shippensburg accounted for the only pins of the match. Ken Keah used a half nelson to pin Stan Woods in 8:22 of their 137-pound scrap. Ron Hart needed only 1:20 and an arm bar to dispose of Pat Rock in the 157-pound match.

Illegal Hold
The Warriors won two of their decisions on riding time and one of the scraps went the Warriors way when the Red Raiders of Shippensburg were penalized a point for an illegal head-lock.

In the 147-pound match Hugh Lawrence was awarded a point early in the match when Ivan Steele used an illegal hold. The match, which took 20 minutes to run off, was halted for about five minutes, while Shippensburg coach Bill Corman protested the call.

II Olympic Skaters Via For Title

ARDMORE, Pa. (AP)—The biennial North American Figure Skating Championship between the United States and Canada opens here Saturday featuring 11 skaters from the 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif.

Six of the 22 member U.S. squad and five of Canada's team of 19 competed in last year's international games. North American competition is a two-day affair highlighting school and compulsory figures on Saturday and free skating in Sunday's windup.

Split Scoring
Scoring for the event is based on 60 per cent for compulsory figures and 40 per cent for free skating routines.

Highlight of the event is the keen rivalry for women's and men's singles titles. Laurence Owen, 16-year-old U.S. national champion from Winchester, Mass., renews her international rivalry with Canadian titleholder Wendy Griner of Toronto, Don Jackson, Oshawa, Ontario, defends his North American crown against the challenge of the United States' new national king, Bradley Lord of Boston.

BOSTON (AP)—Frank Malzone, four times American League All Star third baseman, signed Friday for another season with the Boston Red Sox.

Malzone delivered the contract to Executive Vice President Dick O'Connell, and then headed for Onondaga, N. Y., to visit relatives before going to Scotsdale, Ariz., where the Red Sox have their spring training camp.

Monti Sled Choice

LAKE PLACID, N.Y. (AP)—World bobsled champion Eugene Monti, whose nerves match the icy surface of the 1-mile Olympic bobs run, was a solid favorite Friday to win his fifth consecutive 2-man world championship.

Monti drew the favored post position for Saturday's opening heat—the 19th and last sled down in the first heat. In the second heat he will be ninth among drivers from 10 countries competing for the title. Each sled will make a pilot run before the first heat so the track should be to his liking—icy and lightning fast.

Italian Mark
The Italian holds the course record of 1 minute, 12 seconds, which is the only one considered in this year's meet. Each course has its own mark but because of varying conditions during an event, no single world record is kept.

His closest contender will be teammate Sergio Zardini on the second sled down. Both have had record-bettering times in practice this week with Monti's 1:09.95 the best. Zardini's best was a 1:10.07 Thursday.

Sweden's Walter Aronsson, dragged the last quarter of a mile in 1:10.07, but lost his eye in the race. Both have had record-bettering times in practice this week with Monti's 1:09.95 the best. Zardini's best was a 1:10.07 Thursday.

Rosy Wins Philly Mile In 4:05.4

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Istvan Rozsavolgyi of Hungary toyed with his opposition and coasted to a 4:05.4 meet record victory Friday night in the mile of the Philadelphia Inquirer track meet.

A capacity crowd of 10,650 in Convention Hall watched the slim Hungarian army captain permit Deacon Jones of Fort Lee, Va., to take the lead for three laps. Then Rosy took over for two more, yielded to Jones again, then with three to go opened up.

Close Second
Pete Close of the Quantico Marines was second, about three yards back of Rozsavolgyi. Terry Sullivan of Rhodesia, making his first start on a board track, was third, another 10 yards back.

The former meet record was 4:05.8, set by Ron Delany of Ireland two years ago. Close was clocked in 4:05.8, so he tied the mark. It was his best performance indoors.

Jones, won out from playing cat and mouse with Rozsavolgyi, staggered home fourth, and Bob Vinton of the Baltimore Olympic Club, was fifth in the five-man field.

Cubs Fill Last Spot On Staff

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Cubs' eight-man coaching staff presumably has been completed with the signing of Bobby Adams.

This was revealed in the "Commissioner's Bulletin," the official publication from the office of Commissioner Ford Frick, which stated Adams was signed as a coach as of Dec. 30, 1960.

No Announcement
The Cubs have not as yet made the announcement, probably because a successor to Adams as secretary of the Professional Baseball Players Association has not been named.

Adams, a former major leaguer, completes the Cub coaching staff which President P. K. Wrigley says will operate without the naming of a field manager.

Other members of the staff are Rip Collins, Charlie Grimm, El Tappe, Harry Craft, Vedic Hemsl, Goldie Holt and Verlon Walker.

Cardinal, Floyd Talk Boxing

NEW YORK (AP)—Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson spent an hour and fifteen minutes Friday talking boxing with Francis Cardinal Spellman.

The champion was a guest of the cardinal in the latter's offices. Patterson said the cardinal had a remarkable knowledge of the fight game.

After the conference, Patterson returned to his camp at Spring Valley, N.Y., where he will remain the next three days before leaving for Homestead, Fla., where he will continue training for his March 13 title bout with Ingemar Johansson in Miami Beach, Fla.

Bell, Phillips Gain Finals
PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Judy Bell and Doris Phillips defeated their opponents with exceptional iron play Friday and moved into the finals of the Palm Beach Women's Amateur Golf Championships. They'll meet Saturday over an 18-hole route for the title.

Miss Bell, a Curtis Copper from Wichita, Kan., downed Barbara Williams of Richmond, Calif., 4 and 3, in the semifinals.

U. Of Houston Accepts Bid

NEW YORK (AP)—The University of Houston Wednesday accepted an invitation to compete as an at large representative in the Midwest regionals of the NCAA basketball championships.

Ray (Spec) Keene, Oregon State Athletic director and chairman of the Western Selection Committee, announced the choice through the NCAA Service Bureau. The site and exact dates—March 13, 14 or 15—of the regionals will be announced later.

Houston is the fourth team to be selected for NCAA play. The others are St. Bonaventure, St. John's, in the East, and Louisville, in the Midwest.

New Zone Helps Check Red Raiders

EAST Stroudsburg State College kept its faint hopes for the Pennsylvania State College Basketball Conference alive last night, with a 69-51 win over Shippensburg, at Normal Hill.

Because of a lengthy preliminary wrestling match, the game started an hour and a half late and Shippensburg never did get started.

The Red Raiders, who are the only conference team to hold a decision over nationally ranked Indiana State, scored only 19 points in the first half as the Warriors' new 1-2-2 zone defense confused the visitors.

The Warriors also had a cold start and in the early part of the game could not get through the Shippensburg zone. But when the Warriors did get a shot off in the first half, they were able to hit consistently.

Hopewell Has 22
Russ Hopewell was the leading scorer in the slow moving game, with 22 points. Tony Salerno added 17 points and Ed Becker chipped in 10 points.

Tom Baile had 14 points and Rod Ross 11 for the Raiders, who repeatedly passed up close shots during the first half.

The Warriors, with Becker, Hopewell and Hendricks doing most of the heavy work, controlled both backboards. Shippensburg was held to a single shot on most trips down the floor.

Hendricks, who is being married to East Stroudsburg coed Sue Lloyd in Reading tomorrow, scored eight points and did a good defensive job in his sector of the zone.

Shippensburg was in the game only briefly during the first half, elatoin.

Several Droughts
Several prolonged periods of no scoring kept the visitors on the short side of the score board.

On three occasions in the first half, the Raiders went for three minutes without a field goal. Shippensburg had only eight field goals in the first half, three of them by Baile.

The Warriors opened a 10-point spread, with eight minutes left in the half. Hopewell's one-handed push shot that made it an even 10-point bulge. It was the first shot of its type that Hopewell, a jump shot artist, had attempted.

Stay In Zone
The Raiders stayed in their zone for most of the second half and East Stroudsburg pecked slowly away, building a safe lead. When the visitors finally went into a man-to-man set-up, East Stroudsburg broke loose and put the game out of control.

East Stroudsburg now faces four rough road games, three of them conference affairs. The Warriors will have to win all of their remaining PSCC games to rate a chance at the title.

Monday the Warriors are at Kings and Wednesday they go to Mansfield. Saturday it's Bloomsburg and the following Wednesday, West Chester.

East Stroudsburg returns to Normal Hill, Sat., Feb. 25 against Wilkes.

PP&L Operation Cited

"WATCHING a $47 million project involving tens of thousands of man-hours, the moving of thousands of tons of earth, the placing of thousands of yards of concrete and the erection of thousands of tons of steel toward completion gives an organization a tremendous feeling of accomplishment," said PP&L's Lehigh division vice president, Harry M. Schelden yesterday.

Schelden was pointing to work at PP&L's 300,000-kilowatt, Brunner Island steam-electric station, located along the west bank of the Susquehanna River, 15 miles below Harrisburg. He predicted a date of "sometime in April" for its first commercial operation.

"The fact that Brunner Island is reaching its testing stage during National Electrical Week, which starts February 5 and runs until Thomas Edison's birthday on February 11, is especially significant. For one, today's vast investor-owned electric industry of which PP&L is a part, and the amazing electrical miracles we enjoy today were made possible largely as an outgrowth of Edison's invention of the first practical incandescent light bulb more than 80 years ago and his subsequent inventions of many other components of an electric power system. Secondly, Thomas Edison was instrumental in the formation of many of the early electric companies that today make up PP&L.

"In fact, the world's first three-wire electric lighting plant, built in 1883 by Thomas Edison, at Sunbury, was located in what is today PP&L's service area. In those early years, infant plants utilized the two-wire system allowing them to serve only customers within a one-mile radius. Edison's new three-wire system made it possible to distribute power over greater distances, and remains today as the basis for the huge power grids which criss-cross the nation.

Starting some 80 years ago as an industry that served a few electric customers in scattered urban areas, acceptance of this miracle service has grown so rapidly that the investor-owned electric companies of the nation have doubled their electric supply every ten years and are building to double it again in the next ten.

Interesting Comparison
"PP&L's giant Brunner Island plant and Edison's original Sunbury plant provide an interesting growth comparison," Schelden noted. Edison's plant, for example, had a capacity of only 25 kilowatts while Brunner Island's capacity is 300,000 kilowatts, or enough electric capacity to light 3 million 100-watt light bulbs at one time. Measuring only 22 by 32 feet, Edison's plant was smaller than a typical construction shed used to store material and equipment during the building of Brunner Island.

'Cap' Curtis Receives Recognition

T. M. "Cap" Curtis, zone manager for Investors Diversified Services, Inc. (IDS) 66 year old investment management company, and Investors Syndicate Life Insurance and Annuity Company (ISL), its wholly-owned subsidiary, has received national recognition and an award for record sales during the 1960 autumn sales campaign.

W. Grady Clark, president, announced.

In addition to an award for sales achievement, Curtis won membership in the Presidents Club, an honor group of investors leading sales representatives. He competed with 3,300 Investors representatives who service more than 1,100,000 customer accounts throughout the United States.

M. A. Coleman, divisional sales manager, said. Called "Investors Gold Cup Classic," this annual six weeks campaign is dedicated to W. Grady Clark, president of IDS and ISL. William B. Boscow, vice president-sales of both companies, said that mutual fund sales for the campaign period October 31 to December 10, 1960, totaled $36,558,262. The maturity value of face amount certificates sold was $57,669,028. Life insurance sales amounted to $47,677,367. For the entire year, mutual fund sales amounted to approximately $286 million; maturity value of installment certificates sold was $263 million; sales by ISL were $248 million.

Melinkoff Elected To Board

AT a recent convention of the National Institute of Rug Cleaning held in Atlantic City, N. J., Walter Melinkoff of Mountain Cleaners was elected to the Board of Directors for 2-year term. He will represent both Pennsylvania and the state of Delaware in this capacity.

Melinkoff was also appointed as parliamentary for the sessions held at the convention. Besides his affiliation with Mountain Cleaners he is also associated with The Jewell-Benton Rug Company of Scranton and is president of The Philadelphia Institute of Rug Cleaning.

Crackdown On Salon Operators

HARRISBURG (AP)—A crackdown on beauty shop operators was announced yesterday by the state Board of Cosmetology.

The board reported a growing list of complaints about unlicensed shops, particularly in smaller communities.

The board said it has asked for more enforcement officers to check beauty shops.

Laurel Troop Has Cookies

NEWFOUNDLAND—Cookies, that's the big word for the girl scouts of Laurel Troop One this week.

Their cookie sale of more than 350 boxes is occupying the troop, and anyone who would like to buy cookies may contact any of the girls or leaders.

During their meeting at Southern Wayne Joint School, the White Rose Patrol studied child care and held a tumbling period. Valley's Treasure and Blue Jeans Patrols made Valentines. The Star Patrol discussed tree badges. Mrs. Robert March was in charge.

Black Out To Save Power

BERGEN, Norway (AP)—Starting today the streets of the City of Bergen (population 110,000) will be blacked out to save electric power. Since last year's unusually dry summer, Bergen and most of Norway's west coast have had a serious power and water shortage, and the night blackout is the latest attempt to cope with it. In many areas industry has been badly hit and many companies have had to close down. Others are running at half-speed or less due to lack of power.
